Welcome to the Painted Porch!

The Painted Porch was an ancient meeting place where people from all walks of life could gather to share ideas, challenge norms, and explore ways to learn, grow, change, and thrive – together.

Our Painted Porch seeks to achieve those same goals today.

We provide you with training, coaching, and guidance to master the foundational skills for modern-day success. In today's ever-shifting and challenging world, those who have the skills to navigate uncertainty, master their mindset, collaborate with others, and share ideas with confidence and clarity will be the ones who will lead the change of tomorrow.

Design Your Own Blueprint for Success on the Porch.

Passenger Moment

Have you ever experienced feeling like you are on autopilot? Where life is happening TO you and you're just a passenger on your own life plan?

Like when you drive in to work and you're thinking about something that MIGHT happen and obsessing about it in your head, and then BOOM! you arrive at your destination with NO recollection of the journey?

Or, when you're at an event or in a conversation but you've zoned out or can't remember what was said?

What is a time - either recently or in the longer past - where you felt as though you were on auto-pilot or struggled to be present in the moment with yourself or others?

Present Reflections

Take a few minutes to reflect on what being present means to you - what it looks like, how you feel when you're present, how you know when you are the pilot vs. a passenger.

When you think about being PRESENT, what does that feel or look like to you?

What words pop up in your mind when you think about being PRESENT?

What are a few times in your life when you felt FULLY PRESENT?

How did it feel when you were FULLY PRESENT?

Set Your Destination

Think about a few of the situations and reasons why you'd like to become more present in your life and relationships (be it with yourself or others).

I would like to be more present for/when...

Because...
