

DEVELOP A CHANGE-READY MINDSET

Kick the Habit

Action Guide

Welcome to the Painted Porch!

The Painted Porch was an ancient meeting place where people from all walks of life could gather to share ideas, challenge norms, and explore ways to learn, grow, and change.

Our Painted Porch seeks to achieve those same goals today.

We provide you with training, coaching, and guidance to master the foundational skills for modern-day success. In today's ever-shifting and challenging world, those who have the skills to navigate uncertainty, master their mindset, collaborate with others, and share ideas with confidence and clarity will be the ones who will lead the change of tomorrow.

Let's make change happen together on the Porch.

My Change Perspective

For many of us, change can often bring up a flurry of emotions, thoughts, or feelings.

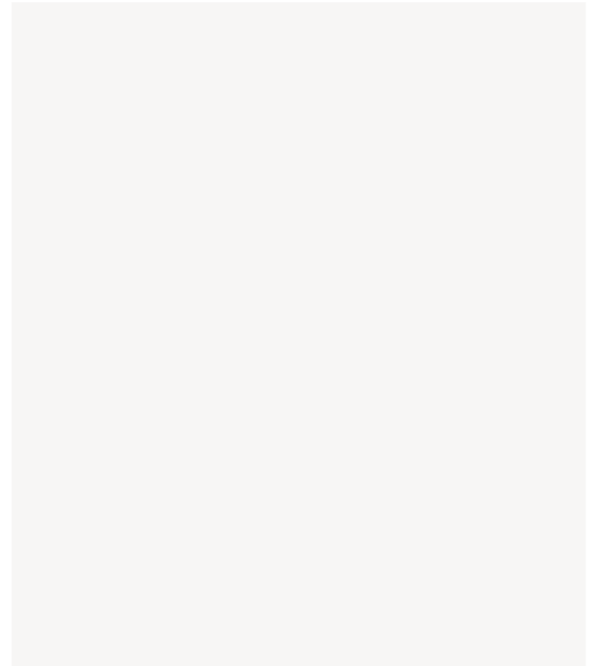

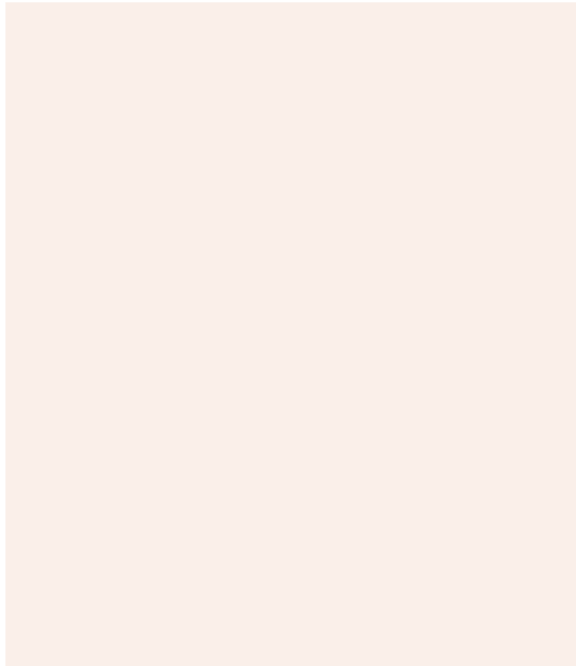

When you think about change - in your life, your work, or any place in-between, what words, emotions, thoughts, or reactions immediately come to mind?

Past Change Moments

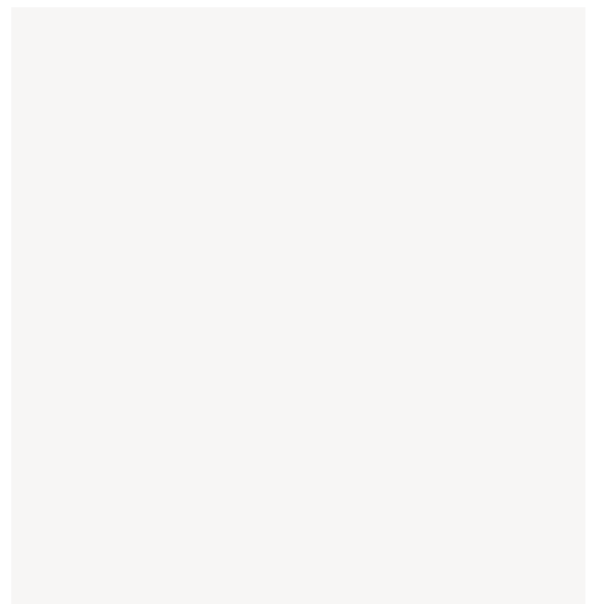

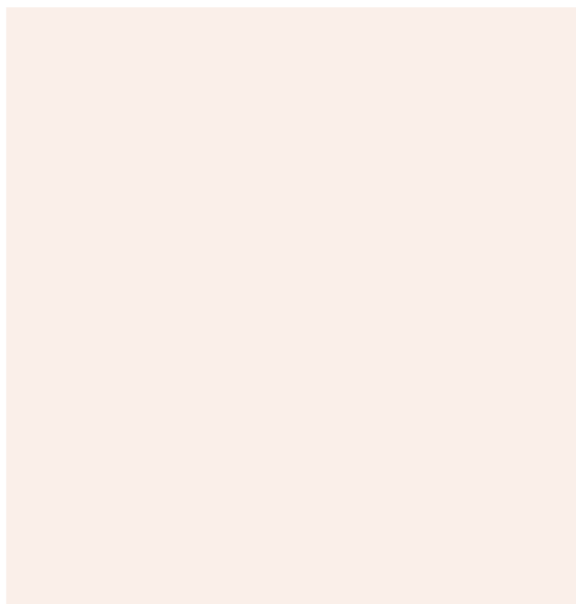

Take a few minutes to reflect on a few change experiences from your past and how they went – good, challenging, or otherwise. This can be a recent change or one that was distinctly impactful or memorable for you.

01. Note a WORK change experience.
What was it? When was it? Why?

How did it go? What was your lasting impression of it?

02. Note a LIFE change experience.
What was it? When was it? Why?

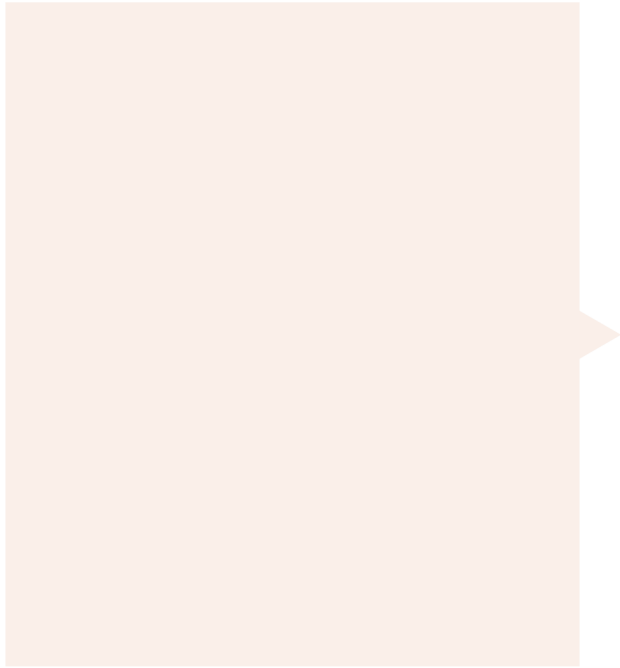

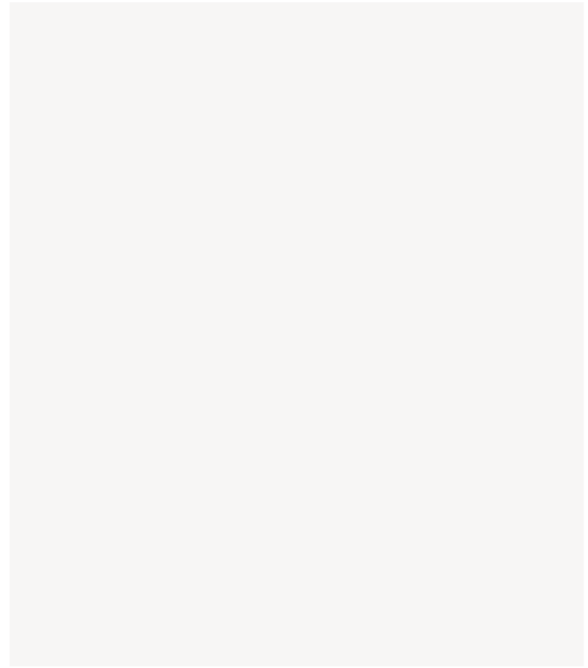

Future Change Moments

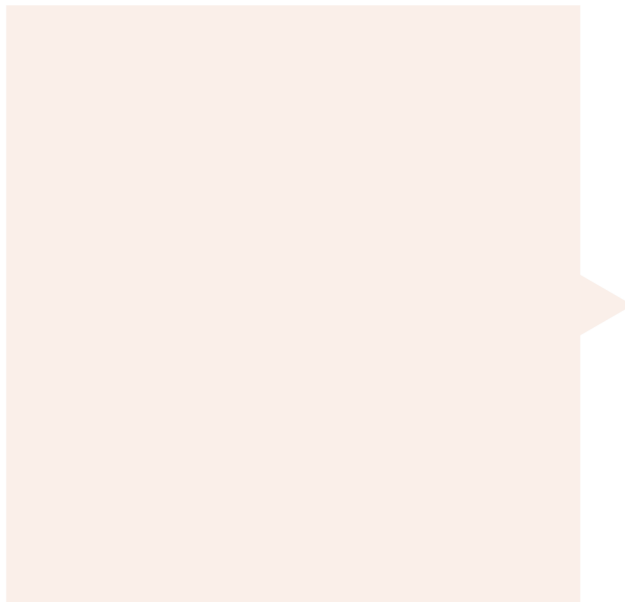

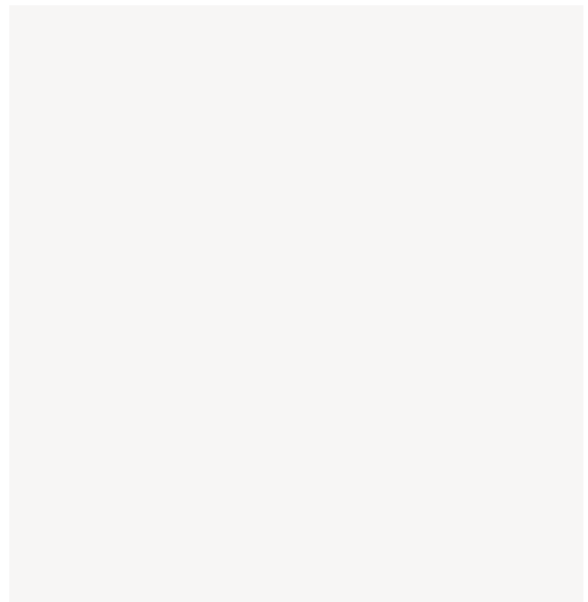

Take a few minutes to identify change opportunities you either are preparing for, or would like to pursue – in your life, your work, or anywhere in between.

01. Note an upcoming WORK change. What is it? When? Why?

*How are you feeling about it?
What are your initial thoughts?*

SPOT YOUR A.N.T.S.

Automatic Negative Thoughts

Make note of your most common, Go-To Automatic Negative Thoughts

Always or Never Thinking

This includes absolute thinking and statements like, "I NEVER get [x]" or "She ALWAYS does [y]".

Focusing on the Negative

Regardless of what went well in a situation or circumstance, you focus on what went wrong.

Fortune Telling

You predict the future, saying things like, "This is going to be a disaster".

Mind Reading

You presume to know what others are thinking with statements like, "I know that he is mad at me", or "She is ignoring me because she doesn't like me"

Thinking with Your Feelings

Using your presumed feelings as the basis for making decisions, judgments, or assumptions such as, "I feel stupid" or "I feel like no one listens to me"

Guilt Beating (aka the "Shoulds")

Guiltting yourself or others into doing something because you "should", "have to", etc.

Labeling

Labeling others, a circumstance, or yourself with statements such as, "He's a jerk", "I'm an idiot", "That's ridiculous", etc.

Personalization

Making a situation, statement, or circumstance somehow because of or all about YOU. "I texted him and he hasn't responded. He's clearly taking this out on me".

Blame

You are the victim of others' actions or bad decisions. You have no control whatsoever over a situation. "If only [someone else] has done [x], then this wouldn't have happened to ME.

A.N.T. Inspection

NOTE YOUR MOST COMMON A.N.T.s

Now that you've begun to identify what TYPES of automatic negative thoughts you may use, note the specific statements you tend to say. This will help you better catch any A.N.T. infestations before they interfere with your change exploration.

Prepare for Change

Change Success Starts with You

Regardless of the change being implemented, its success starts and ends with YOU. Through understanding yourself and how you communicate, you will be prepared to collaborate effectively and intentionally to make change stick.

A STRONG FOUNDATION For Lasting Change

Learn how to develop an unshakeable mindset, confident communication, and collaborative connections & community to thrive and prosper...in life, at work, and anywhere in-between.

Radical Mindfulness

Conquer burnout & overwhelm. Tap into your inner power to take control of your emotions. Find peace amongst the obstacles in life and work. Build up resilience to what is outside of your control.

Master Your Message

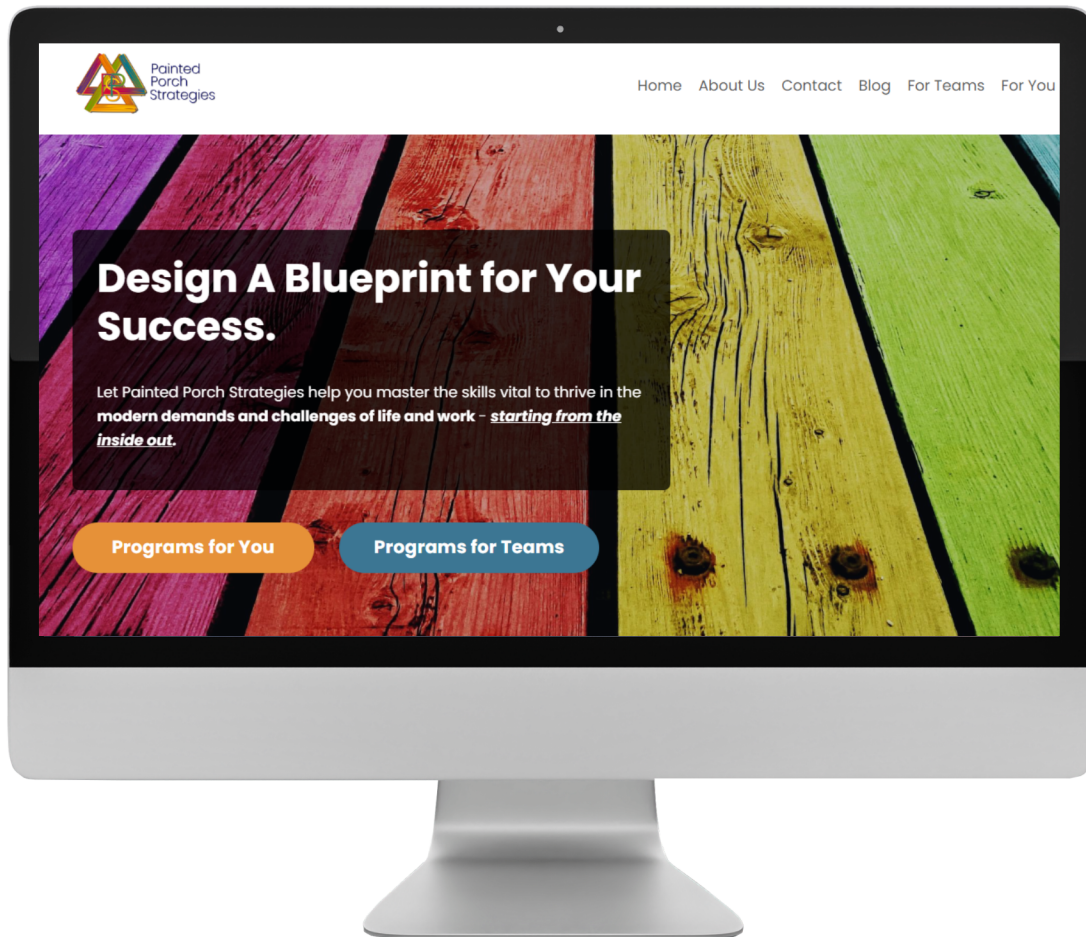

Communication is one of your most important skills – what we say, how, and when. Words can inspire, incite, or be ignored. Master your message and maximize your influence.

Create Extraordinary Teams

Better connect, collaborate, and deal with conflict or disagreements with your fellow humans – in the teams and with people you interact with at work and in life.
